Both tracts are in good condition. Dr. Plummer never made less than 17 bushels wheat per acre on these farms—frequently more.

The locality is as healthy and the neighborhood as refined as any in the State. It is in every respect desirable, and it is seldom such a place is offered at auction. One of the subscribers resides on the place, and will show it to any one wishing to see it. Possession will be given 1st. January, but the privilege of seeding wheat granted immediately.

THE SENTINEL.

Tuesday Evening, Oct. 16, 1866.

The Tomb of Sidney Johnston.

"Town Talk," of the New Orleans Times, gives us the following. The epitaph is indeed rarely beautiful and appropriate:

A lady correspondent, in a recent stroll through the St. Louis cemetery in this city, visited the grave of General Albert Sidney Johnston, and found a written epitaph pasted upon a rough board attached to the tomb. In her note to T. T., our fair correspondent says she was affected to tears upon reading it, and took the trouble to copy it, verbatim. She begs us to find out the author, and she should be gratified in that desire if it were possible for T. T. to do so. Here is the beautiful epitaph:

IN MEMORIAM.
Behind this stone is laid,
For a season,
ALBERT SIDNEY JOHNSTON,
A General in the army of the Confederate States,
Who fell at Shiloh, Tennessee,
On the sixth day of April, A. D.,
Eighteen hundred and sixty-two:
A man tried in many high offices,
And critical enterprises,
And found faithful in all.
His life was one long sacrifice of interest to conscience;
And even that life, on a woful Sabbath,
Did he yield as a holocaust at his country's need.
Not wholly understood was he while he lived;
But, in his death, his greatness stands confessed
In a people's tears.
Resolute, moderate, clear of envy, yet not wanting
In that finer ambition which makes men great and pure.
In his honor—impregnable;
In his simplicity—sublime.
No country e'er had a truer son—no cause a nobler champion;
No people a bolder defender—no principle a purer victim
Than the dead soldier
Who sleeps here!
The cause for which he perished is lost—
The people for whom he fought are crushed—
The hopes in which he trusted are shattered—
The Flag he loved guides no more the charging lines;
But his fame, consigned to the keeping of that time, which,
Happily, is not so much the tomb of Virtue as its shrine,
Shall, in the years to come, fire modest worth to noble ends,
In honor, our great captain rests;
A bereaved people mourn him,
Three commonwealths proudly claim him;
And history shall cherish him
Among those choicer spirits, who, holding their conscience unmixed with blame,
Have been, in all conjectures, true to themselves, their country and their God.

A Northern clergyman, who has lately been travelling through the South, writes from Georgia, to one of his congregation at Kennebunkport, Me., giving a "pastor's view" of Southern affairs, in which, after characterizing the spirit of some Radical leaders as "abominable," he says "the policy of denying representation punishes whole masses of Southern people who neither need or deserve punishment—they have already suffered enough. All the bitterness and disloyalty that may exist can be more perfectly overcome by magnanimity than by severity. As regards the blacks, this denial of representation will surely secure their utter misery if not their extirpation. The colored people are unprepared for the ballot. They could only use it as a child would fire arms—to their own injury, and an attempt to exercise the right of suffrage on their part would surely cause a war of races. No true friend of the negro would wish him to vote at present. That they may make an intelligent use of their freedom, let them be educated. This is the only hopeful work that the nation can engage in for their benefit. Any interference with the interior concerns of the States will be disastrous." It is true, says the writer, that the government runs some risk in allowing the South to participate in the Halls of Congress, but it runs greater by refusing such participation. No free government is safe in arbitrarily governing a portion of its people, and if it be necessary to so govern the South, our form of government will soon be changed from a republic to a military despotism.

PRESIDENT JOHNSON AND THE RESULT.—The Philadelphia Inquirer's Washington correspondent writes under date of Thursday:

Until this afternoon, the President was confident in the belief that Clymer was elected in Pennsylvania, and that there was no loss in the congressional delegation, but that there was a gain in the Fifth District. He has been deluged with telegrams from various parties claiming "Democratic gains" in nearly every county in Pennsylvania and Indiana. To-day he concedes that nearly all is lost, but is assured by Secretary Seward that the people are a little wild now, but will be as bad the opposite way before another year.

BUTLER IS THE GREAT LEADER WHO WILL IMPEACH THE PRESIDENT.—A letter in the New York Times says:

General Butler is the great leader in this crisis, and to stand by him is to save the country from ruin. It is understood that as soon as General Butler takes his seat in the next Congress—for his election is a foregone conclusion—he will move for the impeachment of the President.

NO FORMER SLAVEHOLDER SHALL EVER BE PRESIDENT OR VICE-PRESIDENT.—In a recent Boston speech, Mr. Boutwell said the President had disgraced the country, but he would not be impeached for it, and added:

"I want to say one thing, and so deeply am I impressed with the conviction that no man can ever hereafter be trusted in the office of President or Vice-President who has bought or sold human flesh, that I conjure you and my fellow-citizens forever after to make it a rule of your public policy that no such man be clothed with the highest office in the gift of the people."—[Great applause, and cries of "Good."]

Some weeks since as one of the boys, who while "wearing of the gray," had lost a leg in Johnston's last fight, was stepping on the cars at Salem, Mass., where he had been to procure a cork substitute, an elderly woman, with a very nasal twang, bustled up and greeted him with, "Mister, did you lose your leg in the rebel service?" "No, madam," was the polite reply. "Oh!" and the wrinkles were scarcely preceptible, so genial a smile rippled over her hard face, as she gazed proudly at the young hero, "in ours?" "No, madam," was again the cool response. "Then where on earth did you lose it?" she inquired, much puzzled. "In the Confederate service, madam." "Oh! git out, you horrid creature you," snapped out this descendant of the witch burners, as she whisked indignantly away.

The Portsmouth Chronicle gives the following as "the reply of a colored gentleman who lives in a neighboring village to an invitation to an evening party":

"——— ——— respectfully regrets that circumstances repugnant to the acquiescence of the invitee reluctantly compel him to decline the invitation."

Raleigh & Gaston R. R. Co.	682,500,
Atlantic & N. C. R. R.	$1,066,000,
Western N. C. R. R. Co.	$1,418,000,
Albemarle and Chesapeake Canal Co.	$ 350,000,

No bid less than par will be entertained. Any premiums offered may be applied to payment of the Interest due on the bonds offered in exchange. Bids will be opened in the presence of the Governor and Comptroller, and those will be accepted most advantageous to the State.

In consequence of the bonds and liens, held by the State on various Rail Road Companies, having been in part executed during the late war, I have concluded not to offer them for exchange until the reception of special instructions from the General Assembly.

I have deferred the time of opening bids in order that parties interested might have opportunity of examining the reports of the various Companies for the present year, which no doubt can be obtained from the proper officers of the Companies.

INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS.

Scientific men, who thoroughly understand the subject, concur with great unanimity in saying that nothing exerts such a deleterious influence against health as bad bread. The remedy is at hand in SIMPSON'S INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS, the value of which is thus certified:

RALEIGH, Aug. 24, 1866.

I have tested the Yeast Powders you manufacture and can recommend them as vastly superior to any other ever used by me. In addition to the lightness and sweetness of the bread, the powders are economical, as one-third the lard usually required will answer in the making of either loaf bread or biscuit. For pastries and cakes they are excellent.

VIRGINIA A. OAR.

The price of these powders per package is 25 cts. or 75 cts. per pound. To be had at Wm. Simpson's Confectionary Store, Fayetteville Street, Raleigh, N. C.

RALEIGH, Aug. 23, 1866.

This is to certify that I have used Mr. Simpson's Yeast Powders and find them to be superior to any I have ever used. After trying them once no housekeeper will be satisfied without them.

MRS. S. D. HARRISON.

THE SENTINEL.

WM. K. PELL, SEATON GALES. } Editors.

Tuesday Evening, Oct. 16, 1866.

FOR THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES, AS IT IS, AND THE UNION AS IT WAS.
No Further Amendments.

FOR GOVERNOR,
JONATHAN WORTH,
OF RANDOLPH.

Election Thursday, October 18th.

The News of the Day.

The embargo on intercourse, produced by the late severe rain and storms, has at length been removed, and last evening's mail brought us an avalanche of Northern papers. Much that is contained in them has already been anticipated by telegraph.

It appears, from the final returns, that the Congressional delegation in the Fortieth Congress, from the States of Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana and Illinois, will stand forty-eight Radicals to twelve Johnson-Conservatives. In the late Congress, each party nominally counted the same numbers. The following tabular statement, however, from the New York World, of the 13th., shows a considerable reduction of Republican majorities, as compared with the elections of 1864:

	1864.	1866.	Loss about
Pennsylvania, Rep. maj.	20 075	15 000	5,000
Ohio, Rep majority	59,686	30,000	29,000
Indiana, Rep majority	20,189	10,000	10,000
Iowa, Rep majority	39,579	25,000	14,000

We are forced to admit that, practically and immediately, there is but little comfort in this exhibit, except as it leaves some ground to hope that the same tendency may prevail in some of the States, in which elections are to be held next month, to a sufficient extent to effect the gain of some Congressmen. The status of the next Congress is not yet irrevocably fixed.—There is yet opportunity to reduce the Radical majority below the two-thirds which over-ride the veto.

The late municipal elections in Baltimore were entirely in the hands of the Radicals, the stringent registry laws preventing the Conservatives and Democrats from polling their votes. Chapman was elected Mayor,—receiving only 5,405 votes, although the whole vote of the city is over 35,000. The whole affair was a stupendous fraud, and it is said that the validity of the election will be tested before the Courts.

The recent great rain storm and consequent floods throughout Maryland, Virginia and the District of Columbia are almost without precedent. An immense amount of damage to property, and occasional loss of life, have been the result.

The press, generally, so far as we have observed, comment with much freedom and severity upon the developments made in the correspondence between the President and the Attorney General relative to the case of Mr. Davis. These disclosures establish incontestibly the fact that the civil authority is supreme in Virginia, and that no legislation or Executive action is necessary to invest the Circuit Courts with full and immediate jurisdiction in the premises. They leave no room to doubt that the prime reason why Mr. Davis has been permitted to languish in a felon's cell, denied the constitutional right of the meanest culprit to a prompt and impartial trial by a jury of his peers, is to be found in the vindictiveness of the Chief Justice of the United States, (the same Chief Justice who pronounced a judicial decision upon the legality of the Civil Rights Bill, in advance of its submission to the Supreme Court,) and of his ignorant and depraved underling, Underwood. We are gratified to infer, from this correspondence, that all idea of subjecting Mr. Davis to the mockery of a trial upon the foul and monstrous charge of being complicated in the assassination of Mr. Lincoln has been abandoned. Should the trial not take place in November, of which there appears to be no present likelihood, or it be is not demanded by the civil authorities, the President will doubtless release the illustrious prisoner on parole.

We observe that our Virginia cotemporaries are just beginning to discuss the merits of the constitutional amendment and to analyze its features. Each insertion of the dissecting knife seems to reveal new horrors to them. We have long since thoroughly taken it to pieces, and exposed it fully in all the deformity of its parts. We are glad, therefore, to see that our respected neighbors across the line are waking up to the enormities that lurk beneath the mask of the monster.

The New York Herald, whether seriously or sportively we cannot tell,—probably the former, since its adoption of all the Radical isms,—is advocating the claims of Mrs. Elizabeth Cady Stanton, who is running for Congress in New York. We do not think the idea a very bad one. Most of the men elected in that section behave so foolishly, that it would be well, perhaps, to try the women, and see if they would not do better. Where is Anna Dickinson? If she, and Elizabeth, and Fred. Douglass, could only manage to get into the Fortieth Congress, we really think there would be some improvement upon the character of the late concern.

THE EYE AND EAR.—We refer our readers to the advertisement of Dr. Gardner, Oculist and Aurist, (formerly of London,) now at New York, who will be at the Yarborough Hotel, on Saturday, Nov. 24th., and remain until Thursday, the 29th. After that time, he will visit Raleigh monthly, of which due notice will be given. The Dr. comes highly recommended by the press of the different cities he has visited. Those who require medical or surgical aid for defective sight or hearing should avail themselves of the opportunity now offered for obtaining relief, by consulting Dr. Gardner.

Law and Order.

The people of North Carolina have always shown a high appreciation of the law and a becoming respect for its judicial and executive officers. Perhaps, there are fewer instances of direct and intentional resistance of the officers of the law in this State, than will be found in the history of any other community of its numbers. Though in some instances the law may have been harsh and deemed oppressive by some persons, and may have been enforced with unwonted rigor, yet such is the almost universal respect and reverence given to the law, that few have been reckless enough to resist its enforcement.

But it is as important to the peace and good order of society that the law should not be evaded, as that it should not be resisted. Evasions of the law are frequent in demoralized communities, either from the inefficiency or corruption of its officers, or the corrupt state of morals among those who are cognizant of crime.—Many citizens, from sheer fear, or from a morbid and incorrect idea of individual responsibility, fail to inform against those who are gross violators of the law, screening themselves behind the responsibilities of its officers. But let them be never so vigilant, they are not omniscient, and cannot possibly be cognizant of every breach of the law. Hence it is the duty of every good citizen to aid directly in the abatement of a nuisance, or the protection of society and of the innocent, by lodging information with the officers of the law, in order, not so much for the punishment of offenders, as for the correction and removal or prevention of crime and its increase.

The impression very generally prevails that the war, and its results, have greatly demoralized society in the South. We are confident that, comparatively speaking, this demoralization is not so great as might have been anticipated. We believe that, wherever it exists, it may be cured, and society may be restored to a proper status, if every honest, respectable citizen would go to work earnestly to correct and cure it. It is not necessary, for the correction of crime, that the law should be rigidly enforced at all, when it can be accomplished by milder means. The object of law is not to ruin men, but to reform and save them. In many cases, if the officers of the law and respectable members of community were to adopt those milder means which a wise discretion might suggest, how much good might be done to society and how many men and women saved from exposure and ruin!

For instance, in every community there are cases in which the law against gambling, against illicit trade and traffic, and the law against concubinage and unlawful intercourse of the sexes, is evaded or cloaked. Society bleeds at every pore from these sources, and, if not corrected, they may soon involve and engulph almost every class. Now shall these offences against the law grow and infest society or shall they be corrected or punished? In many cases private remonstrance and the terror of the law may be used successfully in correcting them, but, if this fail, every man must say let it be removed and punished, rather than allow society to suffer.

Consolidation of the Railroads.

Our neighbors in Virginia have been conducting a warm canvass, recently, upon the question of consolidating the Railroad lines and Companies, from the Tennessee line to the Seaboard or Norfolk. The question has been ably debated by the Virginia press and by gentlemen interested, and has just been defeated by the State vote, at a meeting of the Stockholders of the Va. & Tenn. Railroad Company, held at Lynchburg, at which the venerable Bishop Early presided.

Gen. Mahone, the President of the Petersburg & Norfolk R. R., has taken an active part in favor of the consolidation and has ably advocated it. The vote of the private Stockholders was largely in favor of the consolidation, but the State vote, as we have said, defeated it. If the private Stockholders in the Roads east of Lynchburg are as favorable to consolidation as those of the Virginia and Tennessee R. R., the scheme will no doubt carry in a year or two.

This is a question upon which our people on the Atlantic R. R. and the Western Extension are a good deal exercised, and which many are urging strongly. The late Gov. Morehead was strongly in favor of such a movement. We are not sufficiently advised of the arguments, pro. and con., to express an opinion as to the propriety of the scheme.

"Once back into the Union, we can regulate State matters to suit ourselves, and make safer calculations for the future."—Salem Press.

The only prospect of a speedy reconciliation of the States, and the harmony of the Union, lies in sustaining the policy of President Johnson. The plan of Congress and its purpose, as every man must see, with five grains of common sense, is to dissolve and keep the Southern States out of the Union at will. The only doctrine consonant with the Constitution is, that the States are in the Union and were never out, and that the object of the war was not to destroy the States, but to prevent dissolution and to restore the authority of the United States over the States, which had been interrupted by the attempt at secession. This was the doctrine of every Union man in North Carolina before and during the war. The Salem Press and others now strongly side with the disunionists and the doctrines of secession, when they admit that the States are out of the Union.

Again, will the Salem Press explain to its readers by what method the States can regulate matters to suit themselves, after they adopt the Howard amendment? Is it so blind, that it does not see, that when once that amendment is adopted, those very matters, which it says the States ought to regulate for themselves, will then be out of their reach, and will be under the control of Congress?

W. H. B. Taylor and F. M. Rountree are candidates for the House of Commons in Greene county.

"The Watchman."

We very cheerfully give place to-day to the article of "The Watchman," explaining its real position upon the Howard amendment.—We regret direply that the explanation did not accompany the article, itself, which is claimed, by all the presses in this State at all tainted with Radicalism, as endorsing and sustaining their position. We are informed by the Editor himself, that the article, which we publish to-day, was written and in print before he saw our article, at which he expresses his surprise. Why be surprised at our article, when the Editor had already, before he saw our strictures, hastened to correct and explain his own position? We are glad that he sets himself right, and will do so further next week.

The Editor, in a private note to us, says:

"Every gentleman connected with "The Watchman" is as much opposed to the Howard amendment as you are, and you know that if they were not, I would not hold a post to advocate other men's opinions for pay."

We did not, by any means, design to attribute to the Editor an improper motive. Nor did we intend to intimate that he was advocating "other men's opinions for pay." Far from it.—We simply intended to intimate, judging from all the facts before us, that the Editor had honestly changed his opinions, and that he was then in accord with "every gentleman connected with the Watchman." We now know that we were in error, and that "every gentleman connected with the Watchman," including the Editor, "is as much opposed to the Howard amendment" as we are. We are glad, again we say, to be set right.

The Remaining Fall Elections.

West Virginia votes on the 25th inst, and New York, Massachusetts, New Jersey, Maryland, Michigan, Illinois, Minnesota, Delaware, Missouri, Kansas, and Nevada, all, vote on Tuesday, the 6th day of November. These States will elect ninety-seven members of the House of Representatives.

GREAT OUTRAGE IN GREENE COUNTY.—We learn that Jesse Hart was taken from his house in Greene county, during the night of October 4th., by some thirteen or fourteen persons and murdered. Mr. Hart saw them coming, and armed himself, against the remonstrance of his wife. The murderers, it is stated, told him that if he would not attempt any defence, they would not shoot him. His body was pierced by thirteen or fourteen bullets. We learn that some arrests have been made, and the whole matter is undergoing a legal investigation.

COL. OWEN has been re-elected President of the Virginia and Tennessee Railroad.

Commenting on the fourth section of the proposed constitutional amendment, which asserts "the validity of the public debt of the United States," the Petersburg Index says:

"We presume this is the first occasion in history in which it was thought necessary and proper to incorporate in the fundamental law of a people a solemn declaration that they would pay their debts. In view of the fact, which will not be questioned, that it is impossible to increase by such a measure in any degree either the legal or moral force of the obligation to pay, it will, we presume, be generally admitted that this confession of judgment, as the lawyers would phrase it, was intended merely for that useful purpose, expressed by the inelegant but expressive Americanism—buncombe."

AN INCIDENT.—As a train of cars was approaching the suspension bridge, near Niagara, the conductor found a young man who could not pay his fare. The poor fellow was evidently in the last stages of consumption, and emaciated to skeleton proportions. He sat by himself, and his eyes were red as though he had been weeping; but the laws of the company could not be transgressed, and he must leave the train. Not a person moved or spoke as the conductor led him from his seat, all shivering with the cold, but just as he reached the door a beautiful girl arose from her seat, and with bright sparkling eyes demanded the amount charged for the poor invalid. The conductor said eight dollars, and the young and noble girl took that sum from her pocket-book, and kindly led the sick youth back to his seat. The action put to shame several men who witnessed it, and they offered to "pay half," but the whole-souled woman indignantly refused the assistance. When the train arrived in this city the young protectress gave the invalid money enough to keep him over night and send him to his friends the next morning.—Albany Argus.

The sentiment of the Southern press is unanimous against ratifying the "Constitutional Amendment." We course except the papers of Hunnicutt and Holden, and the few of that stamp,—which are but spots on the sun, and very small spots, too. The Macon Telegraph says no possible influence can "induce one Southern State to debase and stultify itself by voting for that amendment."—Rich. Enquirer.

HUMBUG.—Our cotemporary, the Old Dominion, had a half column on this word yesterday, which commences as follows:

"We do not know the origin of this most expressive term, and though we have looked into the Dictionaries, we have not yet been able to get any help from them as to its derivation."

The word Humbug is a corruption of Hamburg, from the lying war dispatches which were once sent from that city. After a while, whenever a dispatch was received elsewhere, which was at all questionable, it was at once pronounced a Hamburg, which word afterwards became contracted and corrupted into our present expressive dissyllable "humbug."—Norfolk Day Book.

The work of cutting a street through Front Hill, Boston, which is densely populated, has recently been commenced, and two thousand poor people have been compelled to vacate the premises occupied by them in consequence.

A street car conductor, in New Orleans, has been brought before the courts for ejecting from his car a lady of that city whom he mistook for a mulatto. She is a Creole, and belongs to one of the old Spanish families of Louisiana.

A man named Dailey, who lived at Rough and Ready, Georgia, had his throat cut and his body then placed on the track of the Macon railroad, near Atlanta, on Wednesday night, where it was terribly mutilated by a passing train running over it.

From the New York Watchman.

The Constitutional Amendment.

From all minor topics we turn every day to think on this absorbing question. Last week we gave what views occurred to us then. We shall do so from time to time. The only conclusion we reached then was that it seemed the policy for the South to wait and watch the progress of events, and that if this measure were forced upon the people, there were some hopeful views even in the event of that dire calamity. That the people of the South will voluntarily accept the measure we do not for a moment believe.

There never seemed to us to be so perplexing a question. To say what a people ought to do, who are perfectly free, is comparatively easy; but to say what they ought to do when environed with the embarrassments which surround the South, is a question full of the saddest entanglements. Our heart's desire is that the Southern States may be led to such a decision as is compatible with their safety and dignity. They deal with a subtile and treacherous foe, whose malignity seems to increase with the troubles of the fallen. Va Victis! is shricked on the breezes which blow from the North.

If there were honor with those in power, something might be proposed or accepted. But there is the trouble. The Southern States are not regarded as parts of the country. "The nation," in the dialect of Radicalism, means only the States that are North. The Constitution is a dead letter. Whenever they are needed to be "counted in" for their harm, the Southern States are so counted in; whenever for their good they should be regarded as part of the nation, they are "counted out."

Now, they are in or out. If in, who dare propose terms for their admission? If out, what have the other States to do with them?—If they are in, why are not their Senators in Congress, seeing that the fifth article of the Constitution provides "that no State, without its consent, shall be deprived of its equal suffrage in the Senate"? Is Virginia a State or not?—Let that question have its categorical answer.—Throwing aside all collateral questions, all theories, all glosses,—yes or no. If Virginia be one of the United States now, she was during the whole war. Then she did not ask representation and equal suffrage in the Senate. She could complain of no act of Congress, as she had nothing to do with it; but the day she comes forward and says, "I take my equal suffrage in the Senate," there is no power on earth known to the American Constitution which can "deprive" her of that "equal suffrage" "without her consent." That Virginia is believed to be one of the United States is shown by the fact that she is taxed, and that she is accounted one of the number of the States, the votes of three-fourths of which are necessary to incorporate the proposed amendment in the Constitution. Now, whosoever excludes her chosen Senators from their seat commits an act unconstitutional, despotic, and anarchic.

Again: The first section of this proposed 14th Article of Amendment declares who shall be citizens of the several States, of North Carolina and Georgia, for instance. What constitutional right has Congress to do that? Each State determines who shall be its citizens, and when men are made citizens of a State they are of necessity citizens of the States United. The members of the House of Representatives in Congress from Alabama, for instance, are elected by inhabitants of Alabama, and who of all the inhabitants may vote for these representatives is a question determined by the State of Alabama. The 1st Article of the Constitution of the United States provides that the electors of representatives in Congress "shall have the qualifications requisite for the most numerous branch of the State legislature," and obviously the determination of that question is with the State.

Now, when we see the Constitution utterly set aside or trampled upon, what is to be hoped for? Deceived already by their Punica fides, how can the South trust these men? Therefore we said last week that "the adoption of this amendment does not secure the return of the States to Congress." But the faction in power may contrive to force their amendment upon the South, and we endeavored to see what hopeful views we could find in that case. They may force even the more hateful measure of negro suffrage. Even then there is the hopeful view that the negro will be so under the influence of the intelligent white men around him as to be prevented from inflicting mortal damage on the State. We should never, however, think of urging that as a reason why the people of the South should voluntarily adopt negro suffrage. Nor do we present the hopeful views which last week we strove to discover as a reason why the Southern States should adopt this amendment.

And then, think of the morality of the men who could urge such a measure! Before a State can be admitted she must commit the sin of repudiation. One would suppose in advance that the General Government would direct each State to take such measures as should secure the payment of its debts as a preparation for re-admission if she were out. But now the General Government says, to Mississippi, for instance, "You are in the Union, and have never been out, and, consequently you have, by the Constitution, a right to two Senators; but you shall not enjoy that constitutional right until you stain your escutcheon with the repudiation of your just debts." Now, a faction, a party, a despot, a government that can do that, is capable of any political crime.

All we can say to the Southern States is, make the best terms you can with your conquerors without becoming participes criminis.

The Supreme Court of the United States Recognizes the Southern States as in the Union.

WASHINGTON, October 12.—Hon. D. W. Middleton, Clerk of the Supreme Court of the United States, gives notice that at the ensuing December term, the general causes brought into this court by writs of error or appeal from the circuit and district courts for the several districts within the States declared to be in rebellion by the Proclamation of the President of the United States, dated August 16, 1861, will be called and disposed of under the rules, and in regular order as they may stand upon the docket.

A great religious revival has been in progress for weeks past at Athens, Georgia. The people go en masse to the services of the various churches on every day, all places of business being closed meantime, and everybody seeming to be deeply interested. As many as two hundred persons have presented themselves at one time for prayer.

A certain man, whom the Picayune calls fool or knave, has been playing ghost about the unfrequented parts of New Orleans. He walks about dressed in white and smeared over with phosphorus. He has succeeded in scaring several ladies and children.

An editor in New Jersey announces the death of a lady of his acquaintance and thus touchingly adds: "In her decease the sick lost an invaluable friend. Long will she seem to stand at their bedside, as she was wont, with the balm of consolation in one hand and a cup of rhubarb in the other."

It is a good location for a Physician or Teacher, and in an excellent neighborhood.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—The Trustees of the Oxford Female Academy desire to make arrangements with a competent teacher to take charge of that institution.

R. D. Hart offers for sale a large and valuable lot in the town of Oxford, with valuable improvements thereon.

The Grand Secretary of the Grand Lodge F. & A. Masons gives notice that the annual communication will be held on Monday, the 3rd. of December, proximo.

OUR MARKET is bountifully supplied every morning with all that is necessary to provide a good table. But one thing is lacking, but that the most essential,—money. Our butchers' stalls groan beneath the weight of excellent beef, at moderate prices; while our country friends keep the market plentifully supplied with chickens, potatoes, eggs, butter, apples, cabbages, &c. Fish and oysters, too, are becoming a regular feature. The latter, though high at present, will doubtless fall considerably, as the season advances.

By the way, speaking of markets, the technicalities employed in the telegraphic reports of their fluctuations are very curious. In the warmest weather, we are told that lard is firm, which is manifestly impossible; and whiskey is frequently reported as steady, which it certainly is not, in its effects, at least. Provisions are constantly unchanged, which is distressing to those who are fond of variety; and pork is quiet, which is probable, considering the process which the animal has passed through. Breadstuffs declining are suggestive of consumption, and Flour lively warrants suspicion of weevil. And so on, though a series of seeming contradictions, which often puzzle the uninitiated.

BASE BALL.—We learn that there is a prospect of a match game between the "Pioneer" and "Tar Heel" Base Ball Clubs, to come off some time this week. The trial of skill doubtless will attract a crowd of spectators. Due notice of time and place will be given.

ECCLESIASTICAL.—There was a very respectable attendance of Ministers and Elders at the late Synod of the Presbyterian Church in Charlotte, and a good deal of business was harmoniously transacted. The next session will be held at Newbern, on the last Wednesday of October, 1866.

The Annual Conference of the Southern Christian Church commenced its session at O'Kelly's chapel, Chatham Co., on the 10th. inst. A number of Ministers and lay delegates were in attendance. The Church in which the body held its sessions is near the residence of Rev. Jas. O'Kelly, the leading spirit in the organization of the society, and almost within sight of his last resting-place. Rev. W. B. Wellons, President of the Convention, on taking his seat, delivered an address, giving a hopeful account of the prospects of the Church. Rev. W. H. Doherty, charged with grossly immoral conduct, was unanimously expelled from the ministry.

The Central Baptist Association met with the Baptist Church at Forestville, Wake County, on Thursday of last week. N. E. Cannady, Esq., who has presided for several years with dignity and efficiency, was re-elected Moderator, and B. W. Justice Clerk. The Churches were all represented, and several Churches were added to the body. They were all reported in a prosperous condition, most of them having been strengthened by revivals of religion during the past year. Rev. T. E. Skinner, D. D., preached the introductory sermon.

Among the visiting ministers were Rev. T. B. Kingsbury, of Warrenton, N. C., and Rev. J. B. Taylor, D. D., of Richmond, Va.

The usual matters of business were attended to harmoniously, and the body adjourned on Saturday evening.

REMARKABLE HAIL STORM.—A correspondent of the Charlotte Democrat gives the following account of a hail-storm that occurred in Mecklenburg county on Thursday last, which is not only remarkable for being out of season, but for quantity and appearance. The statements of the correspondent may be relied on, the Democrat says, as strictly correct:

DAVIDSON COLLEGE, N. C., Oct. 11, 1866.

W. J. YATES, Esq.—Dear Sir: The following is a description of a very novel and destructive hail storm which occurred at half past 2 o'clock yesterday evening. The pieces (not stones) were of every conceivable shape, with horns, legs, arms, &c., resembling bugs, fowls, grasshoppers, craw-fish, alligators, crabs, fish, lizards, chestnut burs, monkeys, sea shells, doll-babies, &c., &c. They came down so rapidly and in such size and quantity that many of them lost an arm, leg, or wing in the fall. The little (not very) creatures came down with legs and arms spread out so that they hitched upon the cotton and other things, stripping them pretty clean of leaves and limbs. Some cotton fields are ruined. The heaviest part of the storm was between here and Mount Mourne, covering the ground from three to four inches in some places, and to-day it still lies in piles two inches deep, the pieces averaging two and a-half to three ounces in weight.

Respectfully, &c., H. P. HELPER.

DAVIDSON COLLEGE.—Rev. Dr. McPhail, of Norfolk, Va., who, before the war, was President of Lafayette College, Easton, Pa., has been elected President of Davidson College, vice Rev Dr. Kirkpatrick, resigned.

ARRIVALS AT THE EXCHANGE HOTEL, Oct. 15, 1866.—Maj. W. H. Stickey, U. S. A.; G. M. Lea, Alamance; J. A. Gilmer, Greensboro'; R. L. Baugh, N. C. R. R.; L. A. Hanks, Pittsboro; R. C. How much suffering comes from Diseased Livers?—Let parents read the following, and remember that these Pills are safe for the most delicate ladies:

Wm. Carraway, Esq., Wayne Co., N. C. (Sept. 1. 1862, says: "I have used the Southern Hepatic Pills in my family. My daughter was in very bad health from disorder of the liver for the space of three years, hardly having had a week without suffering. She took the Pills regularly and strictly according to the directions on the wrapper, and her health has been entirely restored by them. I have used them with great benefit among my servants on the plantation, and can recommend them as a safe and useful family medicine."

A New and Grand Epoch in Medicine!

DR. MAGGIEL is the founder of a new Medical System! The quantitarians, whose vast internal doses enfeeble the stomach and paralyze the bowels, must give precedence to the man who restores health and appetite, with from one to two of his extraordinary Pills, and cures the most virulent sores with a box or so of his wonderful and all healing Salve. These two great specifics of the Doctor are fast superseding all the stereotyped nostrums of the day. Extraordinary cures by Maggiel's Pills and Salve have opened the eyes of the public to the inefficiency of the (so-called) remedies of others, and upon which people have so long blindly depended. Maggil's Pills are not of the class that are swallowed by the dozen, and of which every box full taken creates an absolute necessity for another. One or two of Maggiel's Pills suffices to place the bowels in perfect order, tone the stomach, create an appetite, and render the spirits light and buoyant! There is no griping, and no reaction in the form of constipation. If the liver is affected, its functions are restored; and if the nervous system is feeble, it is invigorated. This last quality makes the medicines very desirable for the wants of delicate females. Ulcerous and eruptive diseases are literally extinguished by the disinfectant power of Maggiel's Salve. In fact, it is announced that Maggiel's Bilious, Dyspeptic and Diarrhoea Pills cure where all others fail. While for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts and all abrasions of the skin, Maggiel's Salve is infallible. Sold by J. MAGGIEL, 11 Pine St., New York, and all Druggists, at 25 cts. per box.

The Louisville Journal says: "The testimonials which Dr. Gardner presents to the public could never have been obtained, except by the display of great skill and learning in his profession. One thing especially commendable in the Doctor's practice is, that he will not attempt an incurable disease for the sake of a fee, but frankly tells the patient whether he can be cured or not. We cheerfully recommend Dr. Gardner to the attention of all our friends who may be suffering from diseases of the eye or ear.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL,

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease.

So wide is the field of its usefulness and so numerous are the cases of its cures, that almost every section of country abounds in persons publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other expectorant is too patent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs that are incident to our climate. While many inferior remedies thrust upon the community have failed and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, conferred benefits on the afflicted they can never forget, and produced cures too numerous and too remarkable to be forgotten.

We can only assure the public, that its quality is carefully kept up to the best it ever has been, and that it may be relied on to do for their relief all that it has ever done.

Great numbers of Clergymen, Physicians, Statesmen, and eminent personages, have lent their names to certify the unparalleled usefulness of our remedies, but space here will not permit the insertion of them. The Agents below named furnish gratis our American Almanac in which they are given; with also full descriptions of the complaints they cure.

Those who require an alterative medicine to purify the blood will find AYER'S COMP. EXT. SARSAPARILLA the remedy to use. Try it once, and you will know its value.

Prepared by J. C. AYER & Co., Lowell, Mass., and sold by

SOMETHING NEW

UNDER THE SUN.

A New Era In Medicine!

☞ Let the Suffering and Diseased read the following.

☞ Let all who have been given up by Doctors, and spoken of as incurable, read the following.

☞ Let all who can believe facts and can have faith in evidence, read the following:

Know all men by these presents, That on this, the Twentieth day of June, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Sixty-Six, personally came Joseph Haydock to me, known as such, and being duly sworn, deposed as follows: That he is the sole general agent for the United States, and dependencies thereof, for preparations or medicines known as MAGGIEL'S PILLS and SALVE, and that the following certificates are verbatim copies to the best of his knowledge and belief.

JAMES SMEITER,
L. S. Notary Public,
Wall Street, New York.

June 1, 1866.

DR. MAGGIEL:—I take my pen to write you of my great relief and that the awful pain in my side has left me at last—thanks to your medicine. Oh, doctor, how thankful I am that I can get some sleep. I can never write it enough. I thank you again and again, and am sure that you are really the friend of all sufferers. I could not help writing to you, and hope you will not take it amiss.

JAMES MYERS,
116 Avenue D.

This is to certify that I was discharged from the army with Chronic Diarrhœa, and have been cured by Dr. Maggiel's Pills.

WILSON HARVEY,
New York, April 7, 1865. 27 Pitt Street.

The following is an interesting case of a man employed in an Iron Foundry, who, in pouring melted iron into a flask that was damp and wet, caused an explosion. The melted iron was thrown around and on him in a perfect shower, and he was burnt dreadfully. The following certificate was given to me by him about eight weeks after the accident.

New York, Jan. 11, 1866.

My name is Jacob Hardy; I am an Iron Founder; I was badly burnt by hot iron in November last; my burns healed, but I had a running sore on my leg that would not heal; I tried Maggiel's Salve, and it cured me in a few weeks. This is all true, and any body can now see me at Jackson's Iron Works, 2nd Avenue.

J. HARDY,
119 Geerick Street.

Extract from Various Letters:

"I had no appetite; Maggiel's Pills gave me a hearty one."

"Your Pills are marvelous."

"I send for another box, and keep them in the house."

"Dr. Maggiel has cured my headache that was chronic."

"I gave half of one of your pills to my babe for cholera morbus. The dear little thing got well in a day."

"My nausea of a morning is now cured."

"Your box of Maggiel's Salve cured me of noises in the head. I rubbed some of your Salve behind my ears and the noise left."

"Send me two boxes; I want one for a poor family."

"I enclose a dollar; your price is twenty-five cents, but the medicine to me is worth a dollar."

"Send me five boxes of your pills."

"Let me have three boxes of your Salve by return mail."

I have over 200 such Testimonals

As this, but want of space compels me to conclude

EXECUTOR'S SALE OF

DESIRABLE DWELLING, NICE TOWN

LOTS, AND A TRACT OF LAND

Near Warrenton, N. C.

As executor of Dr. Hugh J. Davis, to effect a division among his legatees, I shall sell to the highest bidder, on the 15th day of November, 1866, at his late residence, in the town of Warrenton, N. C., the DWELLING HOUSE and LOT. Also a Lot in front of Dwelling, and a Lot adjoining the Court-House square; and a tract of Land about two miles distant from Warrenton.

The Dwelling is in cottage style, containing ten rooms, and has two basements. Near the centre of the town, surrounded by magnificent oaks, it is in one of the handsomest locations in Warrenton, on a lot of about four and a half acres, having an ample yard and garden well inclosed, with Stables, Kitchen, Smoke House, Dairy, Carriage House, Corn Crib, Servants' House, two good Offices in the yard, a well of excellent water, and is bounded by four streets. This square is sufficiently large, and so arranged as to be divided into two beautiful Building Lots, fronting towards the main part of the town. The Lot in front of the Dwelling is enclosed, contains over an acre, without any building, and is bounded by three streets.

The lot in rear of the Court-House fronts on the street about one hundred and ninety-two (192) feet, and contains about three-fourths of an acre. This lot has a Store, with several rooms, at the north corner, a residence in the centre, with several rooms, and an office with two rooms at the south end.

The tract of Land contains two hundred and eleven acres, in original growth partly, but mostly in second growth pine, and is situated on both sides of the main road to Clark's Bridge. Being so near Warrenton by a good road, this tract is valuable for its fire wood, having been reserved for this purpose, but would make a nice farm.

Possession of Dwelling and Lots given on first of January, 1867, and the tract of Land given up at sale.

TERMS.—On the Dwelling, five hundred dollars cash, and on that and the rest of the property a credit of twelve months, from day of possession. Bonds, with satisfactory security, required and title withheld until payment. Inquiries answered.

PETER R. DAVIS,
Ex'r Dr. H. J. Davis.

THE NATIONAL UNION BUSINESS COLLEGE

WASHINGTON, D. C.

Offers superior advantages for a thorough Business Education.

The course of instruction embraces Commission, Importing, Jobbing, Retailing, Bank and other Bookkeeping, Commercial Law, Arithmetic, Correspondence, Spencerian Penmanship and Business Practice.

PENMANSHIP is taught by Henry C. Spencer, the leading author of this system, and celebrated as the Editor of the "Spencerian Key to Practical Penmanship," adopted by nearly all first class Colleges as the standard of criticism. Unusual facilities are here presented for acquiring this valuable art.

The system of "BUSINESS PRACTICE," originated and successfully taught by the Proprietor, receives his special attention. This is the most valuable part of the course. Here the student applies his theoretical knowledge. He buys and sells representative mdse, makes out notes, drafts, invoices, &c., deposits College money in the College Bank, and checks it out as his business requires. Becoming, in turn, Retailer, Wholesale, Forwarder, Banker, he soon acquires a knowledge of business forms, learns to compose and condense the history of every transaction and thinks for himself. He is thus prepared for actual business.

Full scholarship, good for review at any time, with Life Membership in this Union of Colleges; extending to the principal cities, only $45. Books and stationery extra.

For circulars giving full information, for specimens of Penmanship, of the College currency and merchandise,

M'ILWAINE & CO.,

WHOLESALE DEALERS IN STAPLE & FANCY DRY GOODS.

No. 79 Sycamore Street,

Petersburg, Virginia,

TAKE PLEASURE IN INFORMING THEIR friends and the trade generally that the steady increase of their business has rendered it necessary for them to add two rooms to their Dry Goods Department, together with a large and convenient entrance from Tabb street, which arrangement gives them a most spacious Sales-room, well lighted, and enables them by this increased accommodation to add largely to their Fall Supply.

They beg leave to invite particular attention to their extensive assortment of

Ready-Made Clothing,

made to order under the supervision of Mr. A. S. SHAFER, whose long experience in this department of business, in this city, has made him familiar with the wants of Merchants in Virginia and North Carolina. Anticipating a heavy Trade this Fall, their stock will be found unusually large, embracing a general assortment of

American and Foreign

STAPLE AND FANCY DRY GOODS,

together with a full line of

which having been purchased for cash, they have no hesitation in saying to the Trade, that they are prepared to offer such inducements as will insure satisfaction.

Capt. EDWARD GRAHAM and Mr. JOHN McNEECE have charge of this Department, and will be pleased to exhibit our stock to buyers visiting this market.
